RECOGNITION & THANKS

We hope that you enjoyed this year's Doctoral Student/Faculty Seminar and found many sessions beneficial and useful to you in your current stage of the program.

We would like to recognize those students who have met milestones in the doctoral program since the last seminar (March 2011). A complete list of these students can be found on the seminar website. Also, these students can be identified at the seminar by the badge they are wearing. We would like to especially recognize our newest graduates, Drs. Beth Pauley, Leanne Olson, and Joel Harris. Congrats!

A big thanks to all of the faculty and student volunteers. All volunteers are recognized on the seminar website.

I would also like to specifically thank the seminar committee for all of their hard work in putting this seminar together. I was thrilled to work with such a great group of people this year.

Again, please don't forget to submit your seminar evaluation via Survey Monkey, after the seminar. We always hope to bring you interesting, helpful sessions, and look for ways to improve for next year:

FALL 2011

DOCTORAL STUDENT/ FACULTY SEMINAR

Graduate School of Education and Professional Development

South Charleston, West Virginia

October 29, 2011

Welcome to the Fall 2011 Doctoral Seminar! You will find all of the day's information you need right here.

This seminar is part of your Doctoral Program Residency requirement.

The seminar will now be held only once a year, so your attendance is even more important. Whether you are a new student, in the middle of your coursework, preparing to present your portfolio, or writing your dissertation, we hope the sessions will meet your needs. Please be sure to complete the seminar evaluation form at the end of the day.

A variety of sessions have been planned for each phase of the program. To get the greatest benefit out of your day, please take a look at the schedule for your particular stage of the program for the sessions that will be most valuable to you.

The schedule is broken down into the following three categories:

New Students (admitted Jan 2011 to pres)

Post-LS 719 through Portfolio Presentation

Post-portfolio and currently writing

After the seminar, please take a few moments and evaluate this year's seminar experience. You can find the short questionnaire at the following URL:
